

Application for B2 Durability Modification

Section 67, Building Act 2004

Building Consent number

Please note:

1. The B2 Durability modification application fee, which can be found here, must be paid when making this application. If the fees are not paid, then Council will refuse to be accept the application.

When making payment please ensure you provide the building consent number (BC) in the reference section of your payment. We need the BC number to match your payment with your building consent.

2. The durability timeframe requirements for building elements commence from when the Code Compliance Certificate (CCC) is issued. However, this application will modify the commencement date for durability timeframe requirements to the date that the building work granted under this building consent was substantially completed.
