

Part 4: Risk of breaking the skin Minimum standards 4C: Exfoliation

All operators who risk breaking the skin must comply with the previous section (minimum standards for all operators who risk breaking the skin), and also any of the relevant sections from 4A to 4C.

Additional recommended best practice – recommended but not compulsory

- Use single-use sponges.
- Use safety certified microdermabrasion equipment.
- All operators should hold a current first aid certificate.
