We would like the protection and

Reasons for this are:

- we live at 19 Nikau street
- The Kauri tree has historical and relevant value to the community of Eastbourne. The tree was planted as a commemorative to tree by JH. Heenan as a memorial to Hugh Curdstone who was killed in action in Passchendaele.
- The tree was planted in 1920 so is well over 100 years old now
- The RSA are aware of the commemorative status of the tree
- The Kauri tree is home to abundant wildlife which brings in a wide variety of bird life to the area
- we were aware of the trees "status" as a commemorative when we purchased the property at 19 Nikau street in 2008
