1. INTRODUCTION

Hutt City Council is committed to ensuring that Te Awa Kairangi ki Tai Lower Hutt is a city where everyone thrives. The Building Act 2004 (the Act) requires Territorial Authorities (TA) to ensure that dangerous or insanitary buildings are managed in an effective and timely manner to remove the danger and address the issues and building condition.

Section 131 of the Act requires TAs to adopt a policy on dangerous and insanitary buildings and section 132(4) of the Act requires the policy to be reviewed every five years. This policy has been developed following a review of the policy Council agreed in 2016.

The definitions of dangerous, affected, or insanitary buildings are set out in sections 121 and 123 of the Act. To assist to understand the provisions outlined below, see the definitions in section 9 of this policy.

2. PURPOSE

This policy sets out the approach of Hutt City Council to dangerous, affected, or insanitary buildings. In-line with one of the key purposes of the Act, this policy helps to ensure that people in and around buildings in Te Awa Kairangi ki Tai Lower Hutt are safe. In accordance with the requirements in section 131 of the Act, this policy sets out:

- the approach that Hutt City Council takes in performing its functions under the Act;
- its priorities in performing those functions; and
- how the policy applies to heritage buildings.

3. PRIORITIES

Hutt City Council will respond to complaints received from the public e.g. building occupiers, or neighbours, and from agencies such as Fire and Emergency New Zealand (FENZ), New Zealand Police, and others, and inspect buildings to assess their condition and status.

The Council will give priority to buildings that have been determined to be immediately dangerous as identified in section 129 of the Act.<sup>1</sup> Immediate action will be required in these situations to remove the danger, such as prohibiting any person from occupying or using the building. If necessary, the building will be secured to prevent entry.

Buildings that are determined to be dangerous, but not immediately dangerous, will be subject to timeframes set by Council in a dangerous building notice for reduction or removal of the danger (being not less than 10 days) as set out in section 124(2)(c) of the Act.<sup>2</sup>

4. TAKING ACTION ON DANGEROUS, AFFECTED, OR INSANITARY BUILDINGS

Council will investigate complaints received about a building that is reported to be dangerous or insanitary and inspect the building in question. The Council will assess dangerous, affected, or insanitary buildings in accordance with section 121 and section 123 of the Act.<sup>3 4</sup>

In accordance with section 124 and section 125 of the Act, Hutt City Council:

- will advise and liaise with the owner/s of the building; and
- may, under section 121 of the Act, request a written report on the building from FENZ if appropriate.

If the building is determined by Council to be dangerous, Council will:

- attach a written notice to the building requiring work to be carried out within the time stated in the notice, a period of not less than 10 days, to reduce or remove the danger;
- give copies of the notice to the building owner, occupier, and every person who has an interest in the land, or is claiming an interest in the land, as well as Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga if the building is a heritage building;
- contact the owner at the expiry of the time period given in the notice in order to gain access to the building to ascertain whether the notice has been complied with; and
- where the danger is the result of non-consented building work, also issue a Notice to Fix under section 164 of the Act.

If the Dangerous Building notice requirements are not met within a reasonable period of time, Council will pursue enforcement action under the Act.

If the building is considered an immediate danger, as defined in section 129 of the Act, Council will:

- take any action necessary to remove the danger (this may include prohibiting persons using or occupying the building and demolition of all or part of the building);
- take action to recover costs from the owner/s if the Council must undertake work to remove the danger; and
- inform the owner/s the amount recoverable by Hutt City Council that will become a charge on the land on which the building is situated.

Under section 41(1)(c) of the Act, building consent is not required for work on buildings assessed as being immediately dangerous and where a building consent cannot practically be obtained in advance because the building work has to be carried out urgently. If consent is required then the owner must subsequently apply for a Certificate of Acceptance (section 42(1)). However, prior to any action being taken, it is prudent for building owners to discuss with provide Council.

Building owners have the right to apply to the Ministry of Business, Innovation, and Employment (MBIE) for a determination under section 177 of the Act if they wish to challenge's the Council's assessment of a building as being dangerous or insanitary.

5. HERITAGE BUILDINGS

Heritage buildings are scheduled in Hutt City Council's District Plan and/or identified in the New Zealand Heritage List/Rārangī Kōrero. Council's Heritage Policy 2021 recognises the importance of heritage to the story and identity of Te Awa Kairangi ki Tai Lower Hutt. The heritage policy includes incentives for the conservation of heritage buildings, and is available on Council's website www.huttcity.govt.nz

The Act requires that if a building is listed under the Heritage New Zealand Pouhere Taonga Act 2014 (HNZPTA) that Council sends a copy of any notice issued under section 124 of the Act to Pouhere Taonga Heritage New Zealand (HNZPT). Council will consult with HNZPT for any buildings that are listed in the New Zealand Heritage List/Rārangī Kōrero and for those included in the heritage schedule of the District Plan.

Except in emergencies, where demolition constitutes emergency works under sections 330 and 330A of the Resource Management Act 1991, heritage buildings (included in Council's District Plan) cannot be demolished without resource consent. Emergency works can be done where any sudden event means that a building is likely to cause loss of life, injury, or serious property damage, for example if a building wholly or partially collapses.

If the demolition of a building constructed before 1900 is proposed, the archaeological provisions of the HNZPTA apply. Council will seek advice from the HNZPT on any other permission required under the HNZPTA. Additional consents may be required for work affecting buildings subject to Heritage Orders and those subject to heritage covenants or encumbrances.

Council will ensure that alternative methods to avoid unnecessary demolition of heritage buildings are actively considered, including:

- Providing extended timeframes for heritage buildings in relation to any dangerous building notice requiring work.
- Ensuring that any dangerous building notice requiring work provides options to repair the building as appropriate.

6. ECONOMIC IMPACT

Hutt City Council does not receive many complaints about buildings that are deemed dangerous or insanitary. The overall economic impact of the policy is considered to be minor.

7. INFORMATION AND RECORD KEEPING

Any buildings identified as being dangerous or insanitary will be noted as such on Council's property database until the issues are resolved. The following information will be recorded on the Land Information Memorandum (LIM) for a property:

- where dangerous and insanitary conditions, or affected building status, are confirmed and not resolved;
- any outstanding written notice under section 124(2) of the Act, along with explanatory information of the Act requirements.

Information is not included on a LIM when dangerous or insanitary conditions, and affected building status, have been resolved. Information about those matters may still be made available in response to a request for information in accordance with the Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act 1987.

8. POLICY REVIEW

Section 132(4) of the Act requires Council to review this policy every five years. This policy will be reviewed by December 2026.
