

CREATIVE COMMUNITIES SCHEME

ROUND 1: 2024 / 2025

SUCCESSFUL GRANT APPLICATIONS

Applicant	Project Description	Amount Granted
Te Awakairangi Health Network	To facilitate art therapy sessions with youth aged between 18-25 who are engaged with Youth Inspire. 5 sessions. Programme for at risk youth. End of programme to hold exhibition	$3,272.50
Zoe Thompson-Moore	Towards an Artist residency engaging Co-Op members in collaborative creative activities to strengthen community connection and artistic participation	$2,337.50
Amosa Lene	To facilitate workshops to encourage intergenerational sharing of knowledge, blending Samoan choral music and strings, ending in a public performance celebrating Pasifika heritage.	$4,581.50
Hutt City Brass	To deliver live community music performances, promoting musical enjoyment and cultural engagement across Lower Hutt.	$3,740.00
Wellington Integrated Dance	To facilitate 3 inclusive dance workshops for disabled Hutt residents, promoting creativity, movement, and social inclusion.	$1,402.50
Lower Hutt Art Trail Committee	To support the delivery of October 2025 Art Trail, showcasing local artists and enhancing public access to visual arts.	$5,610.00
Lemau Creative Ltd	14 workshops teaching Siva Afi, Siva Samoa, and Pacific drumming, connecting youth to cultural art forms	$3,840.00
Sally Richards	Weekly drama sessions fostering creativity, storytelling, and mental stimulation for local seniors through improvisational theatre.	$2,805.00

Yafeng Chinese Culture Group Inc	A support a public cultural event showcasing traditional Lunar New Year customs and performances at Yan's Supermarket, Lower Hutt.	$700.00
Jess Bromley	A script development workshop with live feedback, exploring Pacific storytelling and character dynamics for a future stage production	$1,955.00
Wainuiomata Choir Inc	To deliver 2 concerts of Christmas music, bringing festive spirit and community togetherness to Lower Hutt audiences.	$2,057.00
Wesley Wellington Mission Incorporated	To support ongoing delivery of in-demand pottery, parent painting, and holiday art sessions identified by community interest.	$4,675.00
Anglican Social Services Trust Board (Hutt Valley) Inc	To facilitate 3 workshops teaching tapa, fine mat, and fala vali skills, preserving cultural heritage for future generations.	$1,870.00
Wellington Chinese Women's Association	To celebrate and support Chinese New Year event sharing Chinese traditions with children and families at War Memorial Library through fun and storytelling.	$2,500.00
Prabha Ravi	To create a classical Indian dance work on celestial themes, involving original music, lyrics, costume and prop design.	$2,805.00
Taylor Curd	The Pride Youth Ball 2025 will celebrate and empower young people through a series of creative performances, including music, dance, and spoken word.	$3,500.00