Dear Arnold Parbhu

Request for Information – Local Government Official Information and Meetings Act (the Act) 1987

We refer to your email dated 3 September 2024 for:

There is a taxi stand on Buick Street Petone. I would like to know if taxi companies are paying Hutt City Council for the parking privileges on the stand. If so which taxi companies are approved for parking on the stand and what cost do they pay annually if any.

Response:

The primary purpose of taxi stand parking is to provide designated, easily accessible locations where taxi drivers can wait for passengers. There are no parking privileges or fees associated with this taxi stand. Taxi companies do not pay Hutt City Council for parking at this location.
